COMPETITION NOTICE FOR SHORT FILMS

The FI PI LI Horror Festival declare a new competition notice for short films, whose final phase will be perform during the eighth edition of the festival that will be held in Livorno (IT) on April 2019

The competition, in addition to the sections dedicated to italian works, is completed with a section of international works

- INTERNATIONAL WORKS - Section for horror and science fiction shorts films which are not italian or italian but produced and directed abroad.

The maximum running time for works is 20 minutes, credits included.

Both Italian and foreign language works will be accepted.

Foreign language works must have complete italian subtitles.

Both released and unreleased works can be part of the competition.

There are no restrictions on the production year of the work.

Works that have already been part of the previous editions of FI-PI-LI Horror Festival will not be accepted.

The Festival organization will nominate a jury of experts in charge of declare the winners of the three sections and assign prizes. The jury's decisions are unavoidable. The organization, in its sole discretion, can assign special awards or mentions to works which are considered particularly meritorious.

- BEST INTERNATIONAL WORKS: Plaque, award certificate given by the jury.

Awards must be exclusively received by the winner or his/her delegate; in case the winner can't physically be at the Festival, the awards will not be assigned.

Registration charge is free.

Each author can participate with a maximum of two works (also belonging to different categories).

Each selected work gives the right to one free pass for all the festival days, which can be fitted by the single director (also in the case of co directed works) or by any other production member.

The Festival administration will select works and will decide the admission to the competition at its sole discretion.

The selected works will be announced by mail, on our facebook pages and our website www.fipilihorrorfestival.it by the end of March 2019.

The deadline to send works is March 3 2019 (the mail arrival date or the postal mark will count in case of mail sent works)

HOW TO SEND YOUR MATERIAL:

To enter the competition you must send to the email address fipilihorrorfestival@gmail.com the work file in MOV or MPEG4 format via WeTransfer platform (www.wetransfer.com) or any other downloadable link. The highest resolution available for the file is recommended.

Along with the work file you must send a copy of the completed and signed INSCRIPTION FORM and DISCLAIMER of rules acceptance by mail (available at the end of this guideline).

Alternatively you can send by mail a pack containing:

- No. 1 work copy in DVD PAL (or MOV or MPEG4) format
